This collection is intended as a thematic textbook on the institutions and procedures devoted to the national implementation of human rights and to the international monitoring of state performance. The coverage extends to most of the monitoring instances available at inter-governmental and non-governmental organizations: complaints, fact-finding and investigative procedures, state reporting obligations, good offices actions, dialogue functions, human rights education, dissemination of human rights information, letter campaigns, and technical co-operation. The book is intended for students of international human rights law, but it can also serve as a guide for both officials and activists involved in the realization of human rights.
