In 1991, H. Jackson Brown, Jr. published Life's Little Instruction Book<sup>TM</sup>, which was originally written as a gift for his son, Adam, as he left home in 1990 to begin his freshman year in college. "I wanted to provide Adam with a road map of what I had learned about living a happy and rewarding life," said Brown. The observations were direct, simple, and as practical as an umbrella.

Life's Little Instruction Book<sup>TM</sup> was a publishing phenomenon. It sold more than six million copies in the United States and Canada. The hardcover and paperback editions were both in the number-one spot on the New York Times bestseller list at the same time. In the last few years, thousands of readers have shared with H. Jackson Brown suggestions and observations from their own parents and grandparents. Moreover, Adam has graduated from college and now works in an advertising agency. As Adam started this new phase of his life, his father again prepared a gift for his son of "suggestions on how to live a happy and rewarding life." Some came from Brown's own experience; others, which had been shared with him, he found to be especially meaningful. Like the first two volumes, Life's Little Instruction Book<sup>TM</sup>, Volume III is a gentle reminder of the important things in life.
