The Experts Guide to Puppy Training

Packed with essential tidbits and step-by-step guides on how to train a puppy, The Expert's Guide to Puppy Training is bound to be the new puppy owners' go-to handbook. This e-book outline's a responsible approach on how to train your puppy ensuring they fit in to their new environment and that they will feel loved in their new home.

Having spent years developing the best techniques on how to train my puppy this book details the crucial first three months of training a puppy otherwise known as the development period in puppyhood. This phase will shape and determine the traits a puppy will carry into adulthood. This is followed by comprehensive sections on preparing a practical puppy training kit, choosing a puppy and where to get one ethically, and ensuring a long and healthy life for one's new companion. You should know how to train your puppy now while it is still easy to handle to make sure it would grow smart and disciplined. Without enough knowledge on how to train a puppy could be so risky in the future.

The second half of the e-book offers detailed discussions on how to train your puppy positively and enjoyably. It will help new and aspiring puppy owners to:

- House train a puppy through fun, safe and low-cost methods;
- Crate train a puppy to ensure good health, regular exercise and clutter-free homes;
- Teach puppies patience and obedience by using gentle commands, clickers and rewards;
- Coach puppies about proper "petiquette";
- Use technology to conduct virtual training;
- Understand the playfulness and personalities of different types of puppies; and
- Maintain regular and effective pet training from puppyhood to adulthood.

It would be a big advantage for aspiring puppy owners to be well-guided on how to train a puppy to ensure good health and learn proper "petiquette". If you have the same desire as mine as to how to train my puppy, this book would be a good choice.
