Randall 'Flame' O'Donnell has just won the fight of his life—single-handedly destroying a terrorist plot to set off a fuel-air bomb inside a crowded American seaport. He paid a price, however, suffering wounds to himself and, more importantly, the girl that he loves—and Flame can't forgive himself for that.

He needs something to take his mind off what happened—and his partner, Dana Morton, has just the thing. Three young American women working at an archeological site on the border between Iraq and Iran have been taken prisoner by Iranian troops. The US cannot help them—but Flame and his team might be able to save them.

All they have to do is take on an entire company of Iranian soldiers...
