Feasts of Jehovah: Foreshadows of Christ in the Calendar of Israel John Ritchie

The “Feasts of Jehovah” all pointed onward to subjects of eternal interest; subjects on which the mind and heart of God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—had been engaged before the world was, and which in due time and order, were to take their places in that marvellous chain of events, which when completed, will show the infinite wisdom and love of God, in all His purposes of grace toward the sons of men.

They were each a “shadow of things to come,” of which Christ is the “body” (Col. 2:16) or substance: foreshadowings of His peerless Person, and infinitely precious work, over which all believers delight to muse, on which by faith they feed, and which they find to be the strength and joy of their spiritual life.”
