Sadly, 83% of the American adult population would rather be sick than well. We choose fear over freedom, pain over potential, and in the process Ostrichsize (ostracize) our unique greatness. We are one of the most stressed, diseased and broken societies the planet has ever seen. Isolating ourselves behind idolatrous shells of pain, we run, flop and bury our head in the sand. How do we bring heaven into the shell? Is there more to life than the visible realm? The hope of families and the reassertion of the church to relevance in society lies at the other end of the question, "Who are you?" Ostrichsized: Finding Heaven in the Midst of Shell, invites you into an interactive wrestling with the journey in which you have set out upon (1 Sam. 9:6). Filled with captivating questions, brutally honest stories of success and failure, and enough scripture to make you reexamine everything you have ever believed, you will be challenged to see beyond the blind spots that have rendered you a mere mortal. Supernatural, Spirit-filled Sonship awaits!
