One of the terrible truths about Islam is that it kills freedom wherever it takes root. Islam is expansionist, and its adherents—once they Islamize a region of the world in numbers great enough to control the governmental policy-making apparatus—impose their totalitarian ways on all others within their political control. This Islamic modus operandi of literally forcing people to lose their freedom and submit to a Muhammadan way of life—the root word for Islam, al-Silm, means “submission” or “surrender”—enforces a fascist philosophy on others that brooks no opposition. Merely questioning Islam can be considered apostasy—the crime of leaving Islam—and is punishable by death. In Sahih Al-Bukhari, Volume 9, Book 84, Hadith 57, Muhammad says, “Whoever changed his Islamic religion, then kill him.” For this reason, among others, the political ideology of Islam must be exposed outright and fought against vigorously, lest the future of America become a deadly, totalitarian one.
