Love Wisdom Passion. In these letters written between 2004 and 2013 by Wayne Liquorman, we gain a rare glimpse into the heart and mind of a modern Advaita sage. They document his travels, his relationship with Ramesh Balsekar, his reactions to current events, and answers to questions from spiritual seekers. Together they form an affecting journal of births and deaths, of Wayne's family and of the larger family of seekers that has gathered around him, as well as the development of his own unique Living Teaching of Advaita.
