What's the difference between an 'Honest John' and a 'Snark'? One can carry a nuclear warhead, one can't. When Francis, Aesop, and their team discover that pieces of both are in the hands of an Indonesian Insurgent group, they can't take any chances—the ensuing battle may determine the fate of Malaysia and, in the long run, the Western World.

Meanwhile, Flame, dealing with rib injuries and sudden feelings of mortality, is pulled into a new battle when the son of his Muslim friend, Kadeer, is killed by Abdul Majid; a renegade imam who Flame drove out of Baltimore. Anxious for justice, Flame and Kadeer track the renegade to France where they are forced to enter one of the famous 'No-Go' zones to confront him and his new band of converts.

Can Flame cope with this new battle when he is injured and alone?
