From The Heart Poems April Morone

From The Heart is poetry at its best. Very moving and wonderfully written in such a unique way, From The heart stands out away from all other poetry. Truly gripping. The poetry speaks for itself just how gripping....It takes experiences-some normal and some unique-and shows them with such a twist and difficult perspective that it's as though one is right there in the events as they had been unfolding as one reads this poetry that so aptly shows these events.
