What if the one person you wanted to talk to wouldn't listen?

Winter Gregory and her twin sister Daisy live oceans apart but they still have the 'twin thing' going on. Daisy is Winter's port in the storm, the first person she calls when things go wrong ...

And things are wrong. Winter has travelled to a remote Yorkshire village to write her new book, and to escape her ex-boyfriend Dan Bekener. Dan never liked her reliance on Daisy and made her choose – but Winter's twin will always be her first choice.

She soon finds herself immersed in village life after meeting the troubled Hill family; horse-loving eight-year-old Scarlet and damaged, yet temptingly gorgeous, Alex. The distraction is welcome and, when Winter needs to talk, Daisy is always there.

But Dan can't stay away and remains intent on driving the sisters apart – because Dan knows something about Daisy...
