Necromancers' Pride - Quest for Elderstone (Volume 1) Charles David Carpenter

Powerful, dark and sinister forces seek to rip apart the very fabric of the Known Kingdoms. With the peak of the 1000-year magical Caredon Cycle almost upon them, the Necromancers battle against time as they plot to dominate all the Strands of the Magics and conquer the world of the living. Their mighty lord, Necromverde Cartigas, knows they grow weaker as their otherworldly power consumes their mortal souls. Only in finding the PRIDE and fulfilling the ancient prophecy will their goal of domination be reached. The dead will be born and the living cast down. This plane of existence will become a hellish underworld, with the Necromancers in complete control of the horror. The entire world of Tarune is about to face an enemy the likes of which has never before been seen. Velladriana Ral, a young slave from the frozen steppes of the distant land of Lyndria, has no idea of the mystical powers growing inside her. Through a daring rescue by Corwyn Du'Serradyn, an Oslyn cadet from the Glass Tower, Velladriana escapes her tormentors. A strange attraction now links the two of them together, and their destinies intertwine as Corwyn finds himself unwittingly appointed to protect Velladriana, whose mystical powers can either save the future of humankind ... or destroy it. This sets the wheels in motion for action and adventure, thrusting them into a quest far greater than either of them has ever known, or for which either of them is truly prepared. They must make a long and dangerous journey in search of an enchanted destination called Mount Elderstone. Once there, they hope to find the answers they seek. With the odds stacked against them, the Quest to Mount Elderstone will be frightening, death defying and treacherous as the apocalypse draws near. HOPE still exists, though, in the form of Reese Pelingril, the lethal warrior running from the heartache and scandal of his own past. It exists in youthful, teen Dolthaia, who was forced to grow up in the perilous back alleys of Canodria, all the while searching for answers to the mystery of her life. Spoiled, juvenile Crispin Claxis, grandson of the famed wizard Presperton Claxis, now must grow up (and toughen up) quickly if he hopes to survive and utilize the ability he carries within his own soul. While Mama Weaver, the eccentric old lady of the forest lends her unique insight to the quest. Who can Velladriana and Corwyn trust? The Weavers Guild, whose ambitious and colorful members control the flow of information in the Know Kingdoms, utilize deception and intrigue to strengthen their grasp on the reigns of power. In the east, the dark energy unleashed by the ancient battle of the Mourning Night grows from the ominous recesses of the scar torn into the world known as the Great Rift. In the west, kings, queens and nobility jockey for political and territorial supremacy. In the south, the enigmatic Lector Maars gains in power, gathering greater numbers of followers to join his mysterious cause as he hunts and seeks to destroy the dreaded Soul Wagons. While in the north, nightmares made real stalk the land. Vile, ghastly abominations that slay anything in their path are coming. All this, as a young slave girl wrestles with the weight of the world on her shoulders and the truth of who she is. Velladriana's abilities could mean the world's salvation, or its doom. Either way, they could destroy her in the process. How great a price would you be willing to pay to do what is right? This extraordinary saga of adventure, heroism and survival comes from the minds of debut authors Charles D. Carpenter and D.W. Jones. Read as they explode onto the literary landscape with the first book in the Necromancers' Pride series. This coming of age, epic fantasy for teens, young adults and people of all ages is filled with unique characters, heart pounding excitement, biting humor, swords and sorcery, spirits and zombies, unbreakable friendships, shocking twists and blossoming romance.
