I don't know why I did it. Maybe it was because his mouth looked just like Tom Cruise's....

Rhonda leaves Paris -- and Maria -- to attend a prestigious writer's workshop in London...and inadvertently hooks up with her professor in an airport bathroom.

So much for first impressions.

To make things worse, her genius art savant cousin Sam catches Rhonda in the act, along with 20 Japanese businessmen, solidifying that moment as her most mortifying.

It only gets better when she discovers that her airport hook-up — and new professor — is a stodgy, conservative, close-minded, arrogant literary fiction snob, who is dismissive of all commercial fiction...particularly erotica. If he wasn't so smokin' hot, she would quit his class. Instead, she decides to stay and teach him the value of a hot sexy tale...
