“Into the Dark is a compelling novel that haunted my dreams while I was reading it, and which lingered in my mind long after I’d finished. This is very powerful writing, and very real – and also very haunting, which I believe is the mark of a good novel...” Felicity Pulman, author of I, Morgana and The Janna Mysteries A best friend. A forever love. A promise. A betrayal. An ultimatum. A choice... Carlie coped with moving from her home in Sydney, Australia to a small village in England to live with a stranger. She battled her way through the mists she thought would drown her, and emerged transformed. She was even starting to think she’d survive the death of her parents. But now an old diary, which promises to reveal the mystery of her mother, threatens to tear her world apart. How will the words she reads affect her? Will she wish the truth had died with her mum? And what is the connection to her own life hidden within the pages? In the second book of the gripping Into the Mists Trilogy, a new relationship with her grandmother is opening Carlie’s soul to the energy and power of the earth. A new friend is opening her mind to the magic and potential within her. And a new love is opening her heart to the sweetest enchantment of all. Yet betrayal hovers around her, and she will face an ultimatum, a sacrifice and a cruel choice that might just break her. Will Carlie find the courage to go into the darkness of her own heart and seek the wisdom and strength she needs to survive, or will the tragedies and the pain of her life break her into a million little pieces? “Serene Conneeley’s magical and very intoxicating new novel has me under its spell – I relish every shiver Carlie’s descent into darkness is giving me. Into the Mists was wonderful, but this is another level, a huge leap. I LOVED this book – but it ended way too soon!” Lucy Cavendish, author of Spellbound and White Magic
