Just when it was all looking so good... This second book in the Eliza Wakeley trilogy picks up where 'Observations From the Precipice' left off as she continues her haphazard journey. How does her love life pan out? How does her shop, Illusions of Grandeur Crafts get on? What on earth happens with Lydia? It goes without saying things don't quite go to plan... and that begins at home with her barmy neighbour, knee deep in her vegetable patch.
