Elegy Written in a Country Church-Yard Thomas Gray

It is known that Gray wrote the Elegy between 1746 and 1750. Three manuscript drafts are in existence. One manuscript, now at Eton College, is probably the original draft; and the text of this manuscript is printed in the last pages of the present edition. Although the first printing was issued anonymously in 1751, an edition issued in 1768 received the poet's final approbation. Therefore the text used in the present edition to accompany Miss Parker's engravings follows closely the approved edition of 1768.
