In Living Colour: An Intercultural Approach to Pastoral Care & Counselling Emmanuel Yartekwei Lartey

This is a critical introduction to the study and practice of pastoral care and counselling. The aim of the book is to adopt a global, more holistic approach, taking account of culture, religion, race, gender and context. Historical developments are surveyed, including an appraisal of international movements such as Pastoral Care and Counselling, founded in 1979. Finally, a spirituality appropriate for pastoral care is discussed.
