This story includes scenes with a spreader bar, BDSM, spanking, training/discipline, collar, blind folding and a rich dominant man.

Kaitlyn just got out of a boring relationship. It wasn't that he was a bad guy, in fact he was a really good guy which was the problem. He was just too damn nice. Too busy asking if 'this was OK' and 'that was alright'. It's not like she wanted a bad boy but she at least wanted a man who takes what he wants. She wanted to be dominated, to please and she thought she knew what that meant. When someone responds to her blog post asking if there were any real mean left in the world, she receives an ominous email inviting her out to the west end of town. She knows it's crazy, but the dark things enclosed in the email make her breath catch and she can't resist her own curiosity. While Kaitlyn is willing to submit to the master, she certainly isn't going to make it easy for him. If he wants to truly make her his, he is going to have to take his time training this new slave.
