Who Am I? Norman P. Grubb

In Who Am I? Norman Grubb presents a thorough exposition of God's total redemption and restoration of man from his fallen condition to his place as a co-heir and co-laborer with Christ. Standing on the Scriptures as his final authority, Mr. Grubb explores in a clear and practical way who we are, why we are, how we can be ourselves, and what our destiny is, which is "Christ in you, the hope of glory." Key chapters include; Spirit is the Only Reality; the Origin of Evil; The Self Can't Be Improved; Separation is Illusion; Faith Becomes Fact; and The Word of Faith. In a simple yet compelling style, Mr. Grubb encourages the born-again believer to take by faith his union with Christ epitomized by Galatians 2:20 and discover the freedom of spontaneous living. Finally, he exhorts the reader to recognize by faith that "as He is, so are we in this world"; and to move into his predestined place as an intercessor. Who Am I? is one of Norman Grubb's textbooks for what he came to call Total Truth, "...a full satisfaction, a rational meaning to all life, a foolproof workable key to daily living, a road map which I could unfold to a fellow-traveler and say 'This is the way.'"
